THE VILLAS

Our exclusive collection of villas boasts of three and four spacious bedrooms, floor-to-ceiling windows, and a private oasis featuring a pool with rejuvenating hydrotherapy jets, a sun-kissed deck, and an expansive outdoor lounge area.

Each villa's design ethos is deeply Bali-inspired. For instance the 'Ulin' villa is named after the arduously sourced Indonesian wood flooring that extends throughout the resort.

While, 'Taro' villa reflects the Balinese spirit through its inspiration from the heart-shaped tropical plant, a staple in Indonesian cuisine.

Our interiors, while international, remain true to the tropical habitat. The 'Koi' villa, named after the koi fish, embodies the aquatic life with lily and koi ponds that dot the premises, creating a tranquil oasis.

Each villa is meticulously designed to comply with vaastu shastra and the chi factor, ensuring a harmonious balance. The 'Kevala' villa, translating to 'pure' in Sanskrit, embodies this philosophy, promising wellness and purity in every aspect of your stay.

The intentional, minimal design of each villa draws inspiration from its namesake elements. 'Paloma' derives its name from the Spanish cream limestone used throughout the villa, offering a deeper, brighter appeal. 'Kayu,' translating to 'teak,' is named for the teakwood flooring that graces its interiors, blending warmth and elegance seamlessly.

Our villas are designed to reconnect you with the sights and sounds of nature. 'Sawah' villa, translating to 'rice field,' offers peaceful views that can be enjoyed from the bedrooms, immersing you in a serene and picturesque setting.

Baale Resort Goa provides an ideal escape whether you are seeking a romantic getaway or a memorable family vacation. With private gardens, plush spa bathtubs, a dedicated butler and much more, this is not just a place to stay but a story waiting to be lived.
